

Ships (Look Inside Cross-sections)

Part of a selection of books that look at cross-sections, this book investigates the nuts, bolts, hinges, and levers of human endeavour, starting with the inside-out world of ships - including a look at the Mary Rose, Mayflower, HMS Pandora, HMS Dreadnought, USS Lexington a Foochow Junk, stern trawler and a RNLI lifeboat. With incredible detail and technical accuracy, the slice-section artworks cut through, up and down, to reveal every hidden part, while absorbing text and labels care no corner remains unexplored.
